Notice

All students are hereby informed that keeping in mind the crisis caused by Covid-19 & Amphancyclone, the last dates of exam-related factors like Internal Assessment, Enrollment, Form Fill- up etc. will be relaxed and therefore there is no need to be overtly concerned about them as of now. The guardians are also requested not to worry about them too much. As Bankura University advices, we are monitoring the situation and considering the well-being of the our students, the dates will be extended as necessary. Fees can be deposited in the college portal. It has been advised to complete the Enrollment & Form Fill-up processes of Paper Selection, checking and submission.

As per the instructions of the University, the students of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya will enjoy the same relaxations regarding last dates.

The Principal along with all teaching and non-teaching staff wishes our students good health and advises all to maintain the necessary distance while fulfilling the tasks. The Head of the departments and teachers of various subjects will assist the students regarding any queries they might have about Internal Assessment. However, all students are advised to regularly follow the College website for new notices and information.
