Notice

This is to inform all students and staff that Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya has been requisitioned by the police authorities for election-related work.

In view of this, the college will remain closed until further notice.

However, all academic activities will continue in online mode as per the regular schedule. All faculty members are instructed to conduct their classes accordingly and maintain proper records of each session, including screenshots as proof of attendance and engagement.

Students are advised to stay updated through official communication channels.
