

REPORT ON
ONE DAY STATE LEVEL SEMINAR
ON INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Date: 28.11.2019

Time: 10 am

Venue: Seminar Hall

Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya organised a One Day State Level Seminar on Intellectual Property Rights on 28th November, 2019. The seminar had taken place in the Seminar Hall of the college and had started from 10 am. The stage was beaming with a number of great dignitaries who had agreed to join the seminar.

As resource persons, the college had invited the following academicians:

1. Sri Jaydeb Sarkhel, Retired Professor, Department of Commerce, The University of Burdwan
2. Prof. Anindya Bhukta, Department of Economics, Netaji Mahavidyalaya, Arambagh
3. Dr. Subir Kumar Roy, Associate Professor, Department of Law and Secretary (Faculty Council for Postgraduate Studies in Arts & Science), Bankura University
4. Dr. Shaikh Sirajuddin, the President, Governing Body, Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya, Principal, Saldiha College, Bankura & Chairman, WBRSSC, Western Zone.

The seminar began with an inaugural song by a few students of Bengali department and the lightening of the lamp. Under the wonderful leadership of the Principal, Sri Santosh Koner, the seminar quickly turned into an interactive session where all the resource persons engaged in conversation with the in house faculty members and the students for whom the concept of 'Intellectual Property Rights' was quite novel. Sri Jaydeb Sarkhel made a wonderful presentation by directly giving examples from real life intellectual property thefts. The other lectures were also brilliant in every sense.

The number of students crossed 600 and the seminar ended with a vote of thanks from the Principal.
